Ten Seniors Reach Semi-Finals in Competition For Scholarship; to Take College Board Exam

Ten McCallumnites are semi-finalists in National Scholarships competition. They are Noel Brinkley, Keith Drosche, Ann Dungan, John Kluth, Joe Magee, Carl Mantzel, Linda Milligan, David Murphy, David Perry, and Tony Pfannkuche.

All ten of these students made a total score of over 140 on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test given to interested juniors last spring.

The semi-finalists will take the College Board examinations at The University of Texas to continue competition for the scholarships. They will take the test on December 5.

These semi-finalists were among the top 10,000 of 35,000 students across the nation.

In the past McCallum has had two National Merit winners. Arthur Chester received a scholarship in 1957. Arthur turned his down in order to attend The University of Texas. Terry Pratt received a scholarship in 1958.

In 1958 McCallum had four finalists. They were Harry Akin, Leon Graham, Lee Thomas, and Terry Pratt. All four of these finalists are now attending The University of Texas, where Terry made the highest grades of all freshmen last year, and Lee was named highest of his class in the College of Engineering.

Ten students of McCallum were finalists in 1959. They were Joan Alber, Don Dean, Gordon Friday, Susan Jackson, Lois Jacobs, Edward Kluth, Gentry Lee, Robert Pinkston, Bill Shutts, and Victory Van Dyck.

Joan Alber, Lois Jacobs, Gentry Lee, Robert Pinkston, and Victory Van Dyck are now attending The University of Texas. Don Dean is attending Rice Institute in Houston, while Gordon Friday is receiving his college education from Baylor University, and Susan Jackson is enrolled at Abilene Christian College.

Edward Kluth is chief engineer for a local radio station. Bill Shutts moved to California more than a year ago, so his current activities are not known here.

During the past two years every student was encouraged to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test to aid in planning his college career. Since another test is now given to all sophomores, to aid in planning their college careers, the NMSQT will be primarily for scholarship purposes. The cost of the first round of the 1961 test series which will be given to interested juniors next spring is $1, payable at the time of the testing. Mr. John McKenzie, twelfth grade counselor, will accept applications any time after October 11.

Mays, Dement Win Top Council Posts, Plan Fall Activities

Howard Mays and Gilbert Dement were elected president and vice-president of the Student Council on October 1.

The election took place during advisory after each grade had heard the campaign speeches of the candidates on September 28, 29, and 30.

Howard and Gilbert's platform emphasizes improvements for McCallum and improvements in student activities.

The first measure of their platform is to have Student Council president petitions presented in the spring with the election held in the first week of fall term. This would enable the candidates to attend summer workshops. Also Howard would like to see McCallum purchase some voting booths to be used for all important elections.

Their platform also contains several suggestions for relieving the crowded condition of the halls. One proposed method of doing this is to open the cafeteria before school and have music and cokes. Howard would also like to see the Student Council study hall reopened at 8 in the mornings for studying.

Other proposals are to have more time between classes, to have a coke break between third and fourth periods, and to try to get the street in front of McCallum paved.

Pan-Am Holds Enchilada Supper, Sells Doughnuts, Elects Officers

The Pan-American Club began its schedule of activity with its annual Enchilada Supper on October 2.

The Pan-American Club has other money-making projects planned. Taking place every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday is a doughnut sale. In the future the club plans a rummage sale and a cupcake sale.

Besides money-making projects, the club has several charity projects planned. At Thanksgiving, a basket of food will be given to a needy family, and at Christmas a party will be given for the children of Zavala School.

The purpose of the Pan-American Club is to promote friendly relations between the Latin American Countries and the United States. The club wishes to accomplish this by taking a trip to Mexico at Christmas.

On September 24 the club elected officers. The officers are Paul Bloebaum, president; Barbara Hebe, first vice-president; Mary Helen Thomas, second vice-president;

Janet Berg, recording secretary; Gunilla Wahlquist, corresponding secretary; Karen Yoho, treasurer; Dennis Reaves, assistant treasurer; Margaret Christie, historian; and Margot McGann, publicity chairman.

Williams Resigns For Insurance Job

Mrs. Sybil Williams, McCallum mathematics teacher, has handed in her resignation to accept the position of policy analyst with the State Insurance Commission. Mrs. Ruth Conard is taking her place as a plane geometry teacher.

Mrs. Williams' duties as a policy analyst are to review the soundness and actual correctness of insurance policies sold all over the state.

Mrs. Conard will teach five Plane Geometry I classes. Miss Margaret Harris will teach Mrs. Williams' solid geometry classes and Mrs. Louva Child is teaching her algebra classes and the one algebra class that Miss Harris had to give up to take one of the trigonometry classes.

Mrs. Conard received her education at the University of Illinois and is qualified to teach mathematics, history, and English. She has previously taught in Brownsville and Harlingen.

P-TA Hears Bredt, Sets Scholarships At First Meeting

The McCallum Parent-Teacher Association got underway with its first meeting of the year on October 1. Dr. Carl Bredt, assistant dean of student life at The University of Texas, was the guest speaker. His subject was "What Is Expected of a High School Student Entering the University?"

Important business on the agenda included the presentation of the new $2,000 budget for the coming year. Part of this money will be used to grant three $100 scholarships to be given at the end of the year. The recipients will be chosen by a committee consisting of Mr. N. H. Wittner; the scholarship chairmen, Mr. and Mrs. Dow King; and eight teachers. The budget also includes the buying of books for the school library.

The P-TA is trying to get enough parents to join so that a fund raising campaign will not be necessary. Membership dues are $1.50 per person.

The next P-TA meeting will be Back-to-School night on November 5. Parents will receive a copy of their child's schedule and attend a brief session of all his classes.

Legg Heads NHS; Club Offers Tutors

The McCallum chapter of the National Honor Society held its first meeting of the 1959-'60 school year in the cafeteria Wednesday morning, September 30, at 8 a.m.

Two items on the agenda were the election of officers and the organization of the NHS tutoring service. Eddie Legg was elected president; Joe Magee, vice-president; and Susie Coker, reporter-historian.

Miss Helen Boysen, NHS sponsor, had each member list his class schedule on a card, along with the courses in which he felt qualified to tutor.

Also discussed was a plan to send two NHS members to each sophomore advisory to explain the meaning of the organization and qualifications for membership.

Scotch Snips

Glasses Anyone? Mr. Jim Collins thinks Americans are much more liberal than they used to be. He explained to his Government class, "You used never to hear an actor say anything more forceful than 'gosh' in a movie. Now, what they say is enough to curl your hair, and what they don't wear could blind you."

Car Trouble? Richard Roseburg and Joe Rowe came late to their class after lunch. When the teacher asked what had detained them, Joe began, "We had a flat tire," only to be drowned out by Richard saying, "The engine broke down."

Angels? Running through the publications office, Jane Paganini got a quick glance at the title of a book and asked, "What are you reading Mary and the Angels for?" Retorted Lewis Pennock, "The proper title is Marx and Engels, well-known theories on communism."

Dunce! Some students are acting young enough to be punished accordingly. For talking to Lilas Shelby, Paul Simons had to sit in the corner during advisory one morning.

Agreeing on their plans for a successful semester of Student Council activities are Howard Mays and Gilbert Dement. Howard is the newly elected Student Council president and Gilbert is vice-president.

Trophy Troubles

In three years of competition, McCallum remains the only competing Austin high school which has not won the sportsmanship trophy. SF Austin High School has won the trophy for two years and Travis captured it the other year.

The Sportsmanship Trophy can only be achieved through Austin Lions Club. It is awarded near the end of each year on the basis of ratings on spirit and sportsmanship. The ratings are made by Lions Club observers, who attend all inter-school sports events.

McCallum has a good chance to win the trophy because of the Lairds and the excellent spirit which has been shown so far this year. A strong burst of spirit at the beginning of the year is not the only requirement, however, since the trophy was first offered, McCallum has always had a strong burst of early season spirit. Instead McCallum's spirit and sportsmanship must be kept high throughout the year.

The sportsmanship Trophy can only be achieved through the enlivened and continuous effort of each McCallum student.

Majorette Malady

A highly controversial subject at McCallum for the past two years has been the selection of our band majorettes. There is no objection to the present majorettes. They are capable and will certainly be a credit to all Knights. However, the circumstances under which they were chosen have annoyed many students.

The elections are held in the summer, and frequently one of the candidates has to miss part of tryouts. The incoming sophomores, who comprise about half of the band's membership, have known most of the candidates only a short time and can be expected to judge on twirling ability. On the other hand, the juniors and seniors, who are well acquainted with the junior and senior candidates, can naturally be expected to let personal factors enter into the voting.

A suggestion has been forwarded that we invite several qualified persons, among them a visiting band director and one or two twirlers from the UT band, to judge. However, the band members, who now elect the majorettes, feel that they are better represented by the present system of election. Much can be said for both sides.

Students should not make a hasty condemnation of the system of any organization for choosing its own representatives. On the other hand, the band should be willing to take constructive criticism as food for thought.

Hunger of the Masses

Having over 1,500 hungry, impatient teenagers to feed in an orderly manner during the course of an hour and a half is a problem that few of us would attempt to solve single-handedly. This situation needs the careful attention of every one in McCallum who uses the lunchroom at any time.

Our principal, Mr. N. H. Wittner, has executed a praiseworthy effort to control the endless masses, and we all owe him a debt of gratitude for doing all that is in his power to help this problem. We also owe him, and ourselves, the small effort it will take to bring our mealtime at McCallum as close to order, neatness, and graciousness as we possibly can.

It may appear, at present, to require a supreme effort, but if we all consider school mates and ourselves as persons entitled to a decent mealtime, we will accomplish that goal. But we will do so only if this consideration is a part of every person involved.

Highlands Enforces Neatness

Highlands of San Antonio has definite rules concerning boys' and girls' dress according to the Tartan. Some of the set rules for boys are: boys' shirts must be buttoned or zipped to within four inches of neck. All of the boys' dress shirts must be worn tucked in.

Boys' trouser waistlines coincide with the natural waist; zootsuits will not be allowed. Boys must have a clean shave and they can't have low sideburns.

Girls' dress rules include: Girls cannot wear excessive crinoline petticoats. All extremely sheer blouses and dresses will be disallowed. This includes backless sun dresses. Girls cannot be barefoot or wear thong sandals. Dyed, streaked or tinted hair styles will not be accepted.

We wonder what the ruling is about Bermudas.

There are just some days when nothing, absolutely nothing, goes right. I had planned to do my Latin assignment. The first drawback to this plan was that I had to go to an assembly to listen to the new president and vice-president of the Student Council and their opponents tell me why they're better than the other guy.

Anyway, I found my way into the right section this time and sat down next to two people who took Latin with me. The most natural question to ask them was if they had done their Latin. "Latin. Oh, those sentences, they aren't due until tomorrow." I decided to listen to the speeches and do my Latin Monday night.

Right off the bat in second period the teacher asked me to look in my book.

Since I didn't have my book, I told him that I was afraid I couldn't. I didn't quite catch all that he said after that but it seemed to me that he stated that since I couldn't pass with it he didn't see how I intended to pass without it. Luckily, the period ended before the teacher had a chance to throw me out. Third period was the only period in which nothing had happened to me.

Having been awakened by the piercing sound of the bell, I proceeded to fourth period. On Mondays we get back the test we had on Friday. Needless to say, I had dropped it. I felt miserable.

Well, fifth period I have Latin. I know I had this class made. After all, there wasn't any assignment for that day. I entered the room cheerfully and sat down only to hear my Latin teacher say, "Calvin, put your homework on the board."

Happily though, all good things and bad things too, must come to an end. I think I'll go stick my finger in a light socket. Better yet I think I'll go read a book. That should put my mind into another state of shock.

For his life held no terror.
Tried to climb the Army line
No hits, no runs, one error.

I shot a pass into the air
It fell to earth I know not where,
And that is why I sit and dream
On the bench with the second team.

Ghost or Mortal? He Roves McCallum

A tree dedicated to him and a birthday party held in his honor are two of the tributes paid a shadowy McCallum figure. Who is this fellow? Every year his name and address have appeared in the student directory. His current residence is at 5600 Sunshine Drive.

The mystery student is J. Wellington Fitch. Fitch came to McCallum in the year 1953. He was brought by Tommy Camfield, a Student Council worker, who has since graduated. However, just because his originator has left McCallum's halls, it does not mean J. Wellington Fitch has been forgotten. In the years since 1953, he has become one of McCallum's traditions.

J. Wellington has always managed to get his name in the student directory, and he usually registers. This year he has not yet shown himself.

Thirty-Two Clubs Chartered for Fall Semester; Everything From Football to Drawing Is Offered

With 32 clubs established and new ones being formed, McCallum's Thursday club system involves hundreds of students. Variety is the keyword with subjects offered to suit any interest from football to powderpuffs.

There are three new clubs at the present. They are the Newcomers Club, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Ashton, the Water Safety Club, sponsored by Mr. Otis Budd, and the FHA Ellen H. Richards, sponsored by Mrs. Ruby Halbert.

There are two other FHA groups. Lady Perth is sponsored by Mrs. Jessie Smith and FHA Number 1 is sponsored by Mrs. Margaret Russell. These three clubs have the same FHA motto, "Toward New Horizons."

Several clubs work closely with other clubs for a common interest. For example, the Sketch Club, sponsored by Mrs. Lucy Benbow, works closely with the RCP on publicity. They are starting on posters to advertise RCP's next production, "Oklahoma." Jonnye Galloway is president of the Sketch Club, with Jack Eidson, vice-president; Bob McConachie, secretary-reporter; and Joe Baxter, treasurer.

The Forensic Club works with the extracurricular speech group. They are sponsored by Mr. Guy Bizzell with David Perry as president; Roy Morey, vice-president; La Jean Chaffin, secretary; James Strickland, treasurer; and Susie Coker, reporter.

McCallum has three vocational clubs, Future Farmers of America, Future Nurses of America and Future Teachers of America. Mr. Jim Collins's Future Teachers is the largest club in the school.

Mr. Kirk Willingham's Future Farmers meet during school hours also. Each member raises an animal for his project. Future Nurses work in the hospitals as volunteers. Miss Sara Lee Hudson is sponsor.

There are several sports clubs. Coaches Forrest Kline and Charles Munson sponsor the Football Club. Miss Betty Slaughter sponsors the Girls Intramurals club while Mr. Curtis Anderson sponsors the Chess Club. Mr. A. R. Salle sponsor the Rod and Gun Club.

Senior girls can get together and discuss mutual problems in Mrs. Virginia Cutter's Powder Puff League. Beverly Loper is president; Linda Loney, vice-president; and Rebecca Kirkpatrick, secretary.

Mrs. Marguerite Sledge and Mr. E. D. Kloppe sponsor the two international clubs. Mrs. Sledge's Pan American Club sells doughnuts after school and have recently sponsored an enchilada supper.

Mr. Kloppe's German Club is planning a pilgrimage to the Elizabeth Ney Museum. Gary Seaman is president of the German Club; David Robinson, vice-president; Sandra Westerman, secretary; Clarence Ferguson, treasurer; and Wanda Weber, reporter.

Talents, Incorporated provides entertainment for both school and local functions. This large organization is under the co-sponsorship of Mrs. Ernestine Browning and Miss Dell Felder.

Students may enjoy the benefits of good popular music in room 140. The Popular Music Club is under the sponsorship of Mr. Henry Horton and Mr. Lillo Etheredge.

Mrs. Judith Morehead sponsors the Science Research Club. This club is an example of the new emphasis now placed on science. Mr. George Boone's Safe Driving Club emphasizes safe driving.

Senior Bandsters To Receive Jackets

As Knight Band members prepare shows for the football games each week, they are also thinking about selecting an assistant drum major and buying jackets or sweaters for the seniors.

The assistant drum major may lead a halftime show or other performance while he is assistant. He usually becomes drum major when the acting drum major graduates or cannot serve.

Nine sophomore and junior band boys are trying out for assistant drum major. The juniors are Bill Cobb, Galt Graydon, Jimmy Haggood, Richard Haschke, Leslie Sullivan, and Gregg Wallace. Sophomores trying out are Jimmy Cowan, Carl Dial, and Leonard Shelton.

This year for the first time the band seniors will be awarded jackets or sweaters. This decision was made after a meeting of the seniors. The awards are tentatively scheduled to arrive in December. The design of the jackets or sweaters, and the exact qualifications for receiving them, have not been finally set.

Mrs. Dorothy C. Ashton, sponsor of the Newcomers' Club, discusses plans for the year with Nancy Adele Davis and Ruenette Green. The club is newly formed for students who have never attended McCallum before.

RCP Accepts New Members; Plans Ball, Beauty Revue, Plays

"With the production of "Oklahoma", Press Capades on its seventh anniversary has come of age," Mr. Jim Collins expressed this year.

Mr. Collins said that the date for the Queen of Hearts Ball has been set for February 13. Other plans for this year besides the Beauty Revue, "Oklahoma" and the Queen of Hearts Ball included two plays to be presented in the spring. The plays being considered at this time are "The Defender," "The Three Sisters," and "Look Homeward Angel."

Recently the Royal Court Players accepted 17 new probationary members. These newly inducted members prepared dramatic monologues and presented them before the members of the club.

Lairds' Services Begin With Dance

Cheering the team at the home football games, selling programs at the games, holding a dance after the first game, acquiring an official Laird shield, and planning an improvement for McCallum's cafeteria have been the main projects for the Lairds during the first month of school.

The Lairds, clothed in their new blue and grey uniforms, have occupied a section to the left of the Blue Brigade at pep rallies and home games. According to cheerleader Richard Allen, "The Lairds are a tremendous help in getting the boys of the student body to participate in the yells."

At the home games, a group of Lairds, headed by senior Joe Magee have sold programs to the spectators. This relieves the Blue Brigaders of this job so they can spend time on last minute details.

The official emblem of the Lairds, a shield with two crossed lances, is displayed at all Laird functions. The shield, some five feet high, is white with blue letters. The shield was conceived and constructed by Guest Whitaker, a junior.

After the first home game with Jones High of Houston, the Lairds sponsored a dance in the cafeteria.

The improvement planned for McCallum's lunchroom is the installation of menus at the head of each lunch line.

Instead of waiting until they enter the serving line, students will be able to see the new menus from the back of the line. According to Mr. N. H. Wittner this will speed each lunch line as much as eight minutes.

McCallum Red Cross is planning several big events this year with a carnival for the students at the State Farm Colony and working with the children at the Baptist Children's Home in Round Rock.

The Red Cross is sponsoring the carnival on Thursday, October 29. Each advisory will collect gifts for the carnival. Approximately 50 students will be working that night. Help will come not only from Red Cross members but also from the sociology classes.

Bill Griebel is president of the club, while Rosalyn Donnell is serving as vice-president. Billie LaRue is serving as Intracity Council president.

The "Imported Fair" is the big thing at Scarbrough and Sons. It includes all different countries, even for the boy. For the boys who want the new foreign look there are the imported English wool sweaters and socks. Scarbrough's even has imported stationery from Switzerland for only $1.25.

Scarbrough and Sons has scrapbooks with our school name on the front for the McCallumite who keeps remembrances of the good times he has had at all activities.

A new supply of garments has come into Scarbrough's stock for football games. Among these is the football bell, a miniature gold cow-bell with a gold chain. Also, they have the new cuddle wrap that wraps around you to keep you warm on those cold football nights. For your gloves in all colors for only one dollar. For your feet they have the short top boots from browns to greens and reds to wear with your plaid skirts.

Knights Lance Unbeaten Unicorns 21-14 to Break Loss String, More Than Double '59's Scoring

The Victory cry was heard last Friday night from the McCallum Knights for the first time since October 18, 1957, the date McCallum defeated Brackenridge (San Antonio), 13-0.

The Knights walked off the field with a 21-14 triumph over the New Braunfels Unicorns.

Failing to score only in the second quarter, the Knights, playing their hearts out, launched an assault of quarterback Bobby Jackson, backs Martin Tyson and Danny Clark, and savage line performers Jack Larsen, Riley Parker, Sam Hoerster, Jerry Spillar, and others.

Determined to win this one, the Knights made the first move toward victory with 4:15 gone in the game when Tyson slanted off the left side, headed to the sideline, and dashed 47 yards to paydirt. Clark converted the first of three extra points and the Knights had a lead they never lost.

Shortly after the Knights' TD, the Unicorns recovered a fumble on the Knights' 10-yard line. One play later, the Unicorns' wonder boy, Jesse Wisdom, lofted a screen pass to halfback Jimmy Heitkamp, who went on to score. Wisdom's pass try for two extra points was broken up.

Failing to score in the second quarter, the Knights tallied twice in the last half of the game. The first of the tallies came with 5:30 gone in the third period. Climaxing a 34-yard drive, Clark scored on a six-yard plunge.

A 70-yard drive late in the fourth period secured the Knights' victory. Tyson's carry of 28 yards aided the TD, but Clark rammed up the middle again for the final five yards.

Wisdom and Heitkamp connected again, in the last play of the game, for a 72-yard scoring play. Wisdom to Heitkamp for 2 extra points ended the game.

Tyson led the ground gainers, picking up 126 yards on 22 carries, Clark racked up 73 on 18 carries, Ronnie Moore had 29 on nine.

Danny Clark, number 40, McCallum's sophomore fullback, is stopped after a three-yard gain against New Braunfels. Sam Hoerster, number 81 hustles to lend a hand. The Knights beat the Unicorns 21-14 for their first win this season.

Hard-Hitting McCallum Defense Holds Touted Mules to 13 Points

A fired-up Knight squad played its best football of the season while suffering a 13-0 defeat at the hands of state powerhouse Alamo Heights of San Antonio.

The Mules, a large and hard-hitting aggregation of veterans, had previously defeated Miller 33-16. The same Miller team had routed the Knights, 34-7.

As in their previous game against Jones, mistakes cost the Knights dearly as four fumbles stalled the Knight offense.

Alamo Heights' only two touchdowns came immediately after McCallum fumbled. The first counter came on a 24-yard end run by Mule halfback Gary Walk late in the first quarter. Roger Kuhl's dazzling run midway through the second quarter was the Mules' second and last touchdown.

Knights To Tangle With Highlands; District Opener With Travis, Oct. 16

With a victory behind them and their confidence restored, McCallum's Knights will play their last pre-district contest against San Antonio Highlands and will open their district season with the Travis Rebels during the next two weeks.

The Knights will match their 1-3 season mark against an identical 1-3 mark of Highlands tonight. The Highlands Owls have been defeated by SF Austin, San Antonio Edison and Corpus Christi Miller while defeating Central Catholic of Laredo.

The biggest weapon of the Owl attack is Julius Glosson, the fastest halfback in the state. Glosson placed second in the state meet in the hundred yard dash.

Squires Stifle Tech With 45-0 Victory

The Squires romped to a 45-0 victory over San Antonio Tech's B-team in last Thursday's contest on Tech Field. The Squires were never contested as nine different players cracked the scoring column.

The McCallumnites scored first on a 20-yard rollout by quarterback Ralph May. Another score promptly followed on a nine-yard plunge by Bob Ryon. In the second quarter Edwin Wilson and Stanley Allman scored to bring the halftime count to 25-0.

The Squires opened the curtains to the second half on a 33-yard touchdown pass from Dick Rutledge to Damon Cochran. Rutledge followed that up with a 45-yard touchdown completion to Ray Thomas and the third quarter ended in a 39-0 score. The final score came on a 10-yard run by Phil Mabry in the fourth quarter.

TIP OF THE HELMET by Eddie Legg

The Knights, even though their record is poor, have improved greatly since the start of the year. Against Jones, the offense clicked in a fine manner. However, costly mistakes killed several long drives. The defense, except for a couple of secondary lapses, held up admirably.

In the Heights game the defense looked nothing short of great. The gargantuan size of the Alamo linemen, however, discouraged any offense show on the part of McCallum. The point is this, there is no comparison between this year's Knights and the 1958 squad, which was stomped consistently.

Temple is looking more and more like the team to beat in District 13-A.A.A.A. The Templeites dropped Corsicana (the team which tied Waco) decisively. The Wildcats have two outstanding performers in quarterback Mike Jenkins and half Tommy Honeycutt. To be truthful, Waco has failed to impress, but they always get tough when the district games roll around.

Elsewhere around the district, Bryan is still winning, having beaten Conroe 3-0. Austin High was literally run off the field by Hix Green High (otherwise known as Thomas Jefferson). The Travis Rebels won another thriller from Burbank. This year, it is believed, will produce one of the finest district races in the 13-A.A.A.A. history. Don't be surprised if a tie for the championship results.

Part of the reason for McCallum's defensive success rests with our two "tree stumps," 225-pound Tank Lindsay, and 230-pound Jerry Spillar. The two together plug up the middle of the line with good results. However, the entire squad deserves praise for the spirit and fight which they have shown throughout the year.

*For the football uneducated, Hix Green is Jeff's two time all-state halfback who is running through, around, and past everything in sight.
